

Agenda

Health Data Linkage Special Interest Group Meeting

Monday 4th May 2015, 9.30am to 1pm with morning tea

Level 4, NSW Ministry of Health, 73 Miller Street, North Sydney

RSVP including any dietary requirements by COB Friday 24th April to:

cherel.mail@moh.health.nsw.gov.au

9:30 Welcome

9:35 CHeReL update

Katie Irvine, CHeReL (15 mins + 10 mins questions)

10:00 Linkage of Commonwealth and state datasets

- the potential, required processes and progress

Heather Gidding, School of Public Health and Community Medicine, UNSW

Kathleen Falster, National Centre for Epidemiology and Population Health, ANU

Sradha Kotwal, Renal & Metabolic Division, The George Institute for Global Health

10:25 SURE update including a demonstration of SURE's exploratory data analysis tools

Tim Churches, The Sax Institute (15 mins + 10 mins questions)

10.50 Morning tea: kindly sponsored by the CHeReL

11.20 The Aboriginal Health and Medical Research Council (AH&MRC) and health data linkage research

- an overview of the AH&MRC ethics committee principles, role and processes
- the roles of the AH&MRC in data linkage work
- models of good practice for engagement and involvement of Aboriginal communities

Jenny Hunt, Vicki Jones, Aboriginal Health and Medical Research Council

12.50 Close